

Tuesday, 4 April 2006

AusCham Breakfast Business Essentials Meeting

Attracting and retaining talent in Vietnam

New World Hotel, 7.30 am – 9.30 am

Ticket price:

VND 240,000 – AusCham & Co-host members

VND 290,000 – Non-members

Book before noon , 3 April 2006

Call 824 3745 or email auscham@hcm.fpt.vn

Mr. Jonah Levey, Managing Director of Navigos Group Ltd, Vietnam's largest provider of recruitment and resource advisory services, will share with us:

- Strategies for successful recruitment in the competitive business environment of Vietnam
- Where talent can be found
- How to influence top talent to join your team

Ms Jessica Lu, Managing Director/ Facilitator of Smart HR, an affiliation of Watson Wyatt Worldwide will share with us:

- Remuneration packaging and market positioning
- Performance management & reward systems
- Staff development and succession planning
- Internal communication

Mr. Peter Talbot, Vice President HR of BlueScope Steel Vietnam, will shed some light on the realities of attracting and retaining talent in Vietnam.

BlueScope Steel, one of the leading flat steel manufactures in the Asia Pacific Region, has had a successful operational presence in Vietnam for over 10 years and has recently commissioned a USD 105m metal coating and painting plant in Phu My.

He has 27 years experience in a variety of Hr Management roles in a number of BlueScope's Australian operations, prior to joining the VN business in 2004

European Chamber of Commerce in Vietnam
EUROCHAM

INDIVIDUAL SESSIONS WILL BE FOLLOWED BY A PANEL DISCUSSION