Clear Thinking

Disputes are an inevitable aspect of doing business. This is particularly true during an economic downturn. Foreign investors in Vietnam may now face a wide range of disputes, including commercial disputes, labour disputes and others. In this context, it is critical to know the mechanisms and options available to resolve any disputes and to be able to determine the optimal solution. This seminar will address how different dispute resolution mechanisms in Vietnam work in theory and in practice and the most effective ways for foreign investors to prevent and resolve disputes in Vietnam.
