Investment Climate: Views and Prospects of Foreign investors in Vietnam for 2009

Business Luncheon at Sofitel Plaza Saigon, Tuesday 17 February 2009

For the year 2009, it is predicted that inflation would be slowing and the country's trade deficit would be coming under control.

The Government has decided to tighten monetary and fiscal policy but in a flexible way to help control inflation, stabilize the macroeconomic situation, and ensure social security and sustainable development.

Join EuroCham key representatives of foreign member companies and share their viewpoints on the investment climate in Vietnam for 2009:

Assessment and analysis of the economic situation, as well as prospects for business operations and opportunities to live up the market.
