10 October 2007

Dear HKBAV members,

Luncheon Talk on Hong Kong Policy Address and China's 11th Five-Year Plan

The Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office (HKETO) in Singapore will host a luncheon talk on October 24, 2007 (Wednesday). Mr K.K. Lam, Director of the HKETO, will address at the luncheon talk the Policy Address delivered on October 10 by Mr Donald Tsang, Chief Executive of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR), as well as China's 11th Five-Year Plan.

The Policy Address is Mr Tsang's first Policy Address as the leader of the third term HKSAR Government. It sets important directions for the HKSAR Government policies in all major areas including the economy, business environment, social issues and future development of Hong Kong. During the luncheon talk, Mr Lam will also update guests on the latest developments in Hong Kong.

Hong Kong's role and direction of Hong Kong's economic development have already been highlighted in China's 11th Five-Year Plan, that are to develop financial, logistics, tourism and IT industries and to preserve Hong Kong's status as an international financial, trade and shipping centre.

You are cordially invited to the luncheon talk to be held at 12:30 pm at Diamond Hall B, Ground Floor, Sofitel Plaza Saigon, 17 Le Duan Boulevard, District 1, Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam. The event is free of charge.

Kindly reply to the HKBAV Secretariat by tel (848) 824 3757 / 822 8888 ext. 7322 by October 19, 2007 (Friday).

For enquiries, please feel free to contact the HKBAV Secretariat or Ms Kammy Chim, Public Relations Officer, HKETO by email kammy_chim@hketosin.gov.hk or by tel (65) 6330 9346.

We look forward to seeing you at the luncheon talk.

Yours sincerely,

Grace NG
