Re: High-level Mission from HK to Vietnam, 10-14 December 2006

Dear Sir/Madam,

Having noted Vietnam's significant economic development especially after being granted admission to the World Trade Organization as its 150th member, the Hong Kong Trade Development Council (HKTDC) is organizing a high-level Hong Kong Business Mission to Ho Chi Minh City and Hanoi Capital during December 10-14, 2006, which will be co-led by The Hon. Andrew Leung, a HKTDC Council Member and Honorary President of Federation of Hong Kong Industries; and Mr. Fred Lam, Executive Director of the HKTDC.

The intention of the mission is to realize further investment and trade opportunities between Hong Kong and Vietnam. The trade mission will comprise 17 top-tier Hong Kong corporations in various sectors, such as watches and clocks, toys, garment, furniture, retailing, logistics, ICT, and others. These corporations are keen to explore opportunities for business, either by setting up production bases, making investments, sourcing trading partners, or generally making their services available in Vietnam.

We cordially invite your company to attend the following events:
