

[What is the solution for environmental risk?]

Mr. Lionel Mintz - Environmental Risk Specialist of global risk advisory firm – Marsh, will be making a presentation on Environmental Risk Exposures for business & companies that are operating in the world today.

Lionel who oversees the Marsh Asia Pacific Regions Environmental Risk Practice has over 32 years working experience with specific focus in the Construction and Environmental areas.

During his time with Marsh he has been involved in numerous major/complex projects ranging from multi billion dollar construction projects to high profile environmental sites including the first environmental insurance programme in China.

Lionel's luncheon talk will take us through the following:

1. What next for environmental legalisation in Vietnam;
2. A brief synopsis of what environmental cover is provided under a general liability policy;
3. Environmental claim case studies in Asia;
4. Better and competitive solutions for environmental risks;
5. A quick snap shot on climate change and your insurance ramifications.

Marsh is the World leader in delivering Risk and Insurance Services to clients. Marsh is based in 100 countries with more than 54,000 employees.

One of the growing practices within the Marsh Group is the Environmental Business Unit with in excess of 100 employees.
