High Tea Seminar on Taxation.

The new Personal Income Tax regime which will be effective from 1 January 2009, will have far reaching consequences to Vietnamese and foreigners alike. Significant changes are anticipated consequent to the removal of the dual rate system of taxation, the broadening of the scope of who qualifies to be tax resident in Vietnam, the removal of higher marginal rates and the limitation of access to tax free benefits in kind.

Come and hear from the experts as they share with you their insights on the application of this new law, how it will impact you and their tips on planning for the anticipated changes.

Speaker: Mr Nam Nguyen, Tax Partner, Ernst & Young.

The seminar will discuss with you the following salient issues:

- .1 Residency concepts
- .2 What constitutes taxable income
- .3 What benefits in kind are now taxable
- .4 What is exempt income
- .5 What can be claimed as tax deduction
- .6 How the new PIT is calculated
- .7 What effect does the new tax rates have on your take home pay
- .8 How will foreign tax credits be accounted for
- .9 Tax planning opportunities
- .10 Tax filing and administration
- .11 New procedures for applying tax treaty exemptions.

This is followed by a Q & A session
