Greetings,

The Kellogg-HKUST Executive Master in Business Administration program is a 16-month, part-time program designed for senior executives who have attained positions of leadership within their organizations to meet the greater challenges ahead from a global and integrative perspective. The program capitalizes on the combined strengths of the renowned Kellogg School of Management and the HKUST Business School. Our program was ranked No. 3 in the world by Financial Times 2006.

In order to let you know more about our World Class program, you are cordially invited to our information session in Ho Chi Minh City on September 19. You will be meeting Prof. Steven DeKrey, Program Director at the event. The session will begin with a presentation, followed by a question and answer period with alumni and current participants, they will share with you their perspectives of the program.
